

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Software Engineer, NativelyAI, Dover, DE, USA (remote) [Sept 2025 - Present]

- As a full-stack engineer, I collaborated with the engineering team to build the frontend from UI designs and also developed scalable backend APIs for NativelyApp (a next-gen AI app builder).
- I advanced from an Engineering Intern to a full-time role within two months by demonstrating strong technical ownership and delivering features ahead of schedule.
- I contribute to the ecosystem as a Technical Judge for Lablab.ai hackathons, evaluating AI-native projects and mentoring developers.
- Utilized the following technologies: ReactJS, TypeScript, Python, TailwindCSS, FastAPI, Docker, GitHub workflows, and Playwright.

Software Engineer, Punch Agency, Estero, FL, USA (Remote) [Jan 2025 - Sept 2025]

- I engineered production-ready applications for global startups, demonstrating versatility across frontend and backend projects.
- I collaborated closely with designers, engineers, and stakeholders to define requirements, optimize workflows, and deliver projects on time.
- Delivered impactful solutions for clients such as Zwilt, Entrecore, and Elmer, contributing to their business goals and product success.
- Utilized the following technologies: NodeJS, NextJS, GraphQL, TypeScript, ReactJS, TailwindCSS, and GitHub Workflows.

PROJECTS

---

Lexi (lexicontract.com): An AI-powered contract copilot that helps users understand their contracts in minutes. Built during the Lablab.ai + AIMLAPI hackathon, where it placed top-5 among 3k+ participants, Lexi is now evolving into a full SaaS product. Try Lexi

Tsfluent: A simple and elegant open-source Result type implementation for TypeScript that improves error handling and code readability. View TsFluent On Github

Holytab (Holytab): An open source Chrome extension that delivers Bible-centered affirmations on every new tab, combining productivity with faith. View Holytab on Chrome Web Store
